VOLCOM BERGFEST presented by C1RCA

Ben Hatchell (USA) wins Volcom Bergfest 2011

1500 spectators, international Top-Pros from all over Europe and the US, a McTwist in the Monsterbowl and on top of it all, McRad and Duane Peters who tore down the stage in the evening. At last, with the Volcom Bergfest 2011, presented by C1rca, the legendary and re-shaped skate park, Berg Fidel, got what it deserved – an amazing skateboard party.

Many top skaters enjoyed the good weather and a great session in the bowl and the several contest formats. Anders Tellen representing the Masters Group hit the coping with high-speed smith grinds and in the Pro Group Ben Hatchell sported a massive bs ollie from the Monsterbowl directly into the corner. When Hatchell finally nailed down a McTwist in the deep end, there were no more questions to be answered: 1st place and $2.000 prize money for the US upstart from the C1rca team.

A lot of heavy action was shown in the other formats too. While Mad-Man Christian Krause, from Münster, finished the Pavel Death-Race alive and in best time, which got him 1st place, only a few meters away the street skaters celebrated the Battle at the Bergrail, presented by Globe, and earned good cash for awesome tricks. When Mc Rad and the US Bombs rocked their 6-strings, everybody felt the spirit of the legendary sessions before the Mastership in the good old days. Bowls, Beers, and Punkrock – there's nothing better than this! The battle is over, for this year...
